Gregory Stockert receives 120 month prison sentence for sexually abusing child

Today, Multnomah District Attorney Rod Underhill announced that 69-year-old Gregory Stockert received a 120 month prison sentence for sexually abusing a child.

On April 23, 2019, Stockert pleaded guilty to five counts of sexual abuse in the first degree. By pleading guilty, Stockert admitted that he unlawfully and knowingly subjected a child under the age of 14 to sexual contact on multiple occasions between the years of 2012 and 2017.

Stockert will have to register as a sex offender and must pay a total of $2,568.40 in restitution.

This investigation started in December 2017 when the victim disclosed being sexually abused to a mandatory reporter.

This case was litigated by Multnomah County Deputy District Attorney Chuck Mickley who is assigned to the Multnomah County Multidisciplinary Child Abuse Team, which includes representatives from local law enforcement, public schools, hospitals, courts, health departments, the Oregon Department of Human Services (DHS), and the Oregon Department of Employment Child Care Division.

The Multnomah County District Attorney's Multidisciplinary Child Abuse Team is responsible for reviewing and coordinating child abuse and neglect cases in Multnomah County. The team also handles all child homicides, felony child physical abuse cases, felony child abandonment cases, custodial interference cases, and felony sex crimes where the victim is currently under the age of 18 and where the perpetrator is determined not to be a stranger to the child.
