Grand Jury returns not true bill decision in April 29, 2019 fatal officer involved shooting

Today, Multnomah County District Attorney Rod Underhill announced that upon the conclusion of the presentation of evidence, a grand jury returned a not true bill regarding the use of force by two Portland Police Bureau members that resulted in the death of 42 year-old Jeb Brock.

The grand jury determined the use of deadly force by Portland Police Sergeant James Mooney and Officer Michael Gonzalez was a lawful act of self-defense and/or defense of a third person, pursuant to Oregon law.

This investigation started on April 29, 2019 when officers assigned to the Portland Police Bureau were dispatched to a stabbing at a residence in the 13000 block of Southeast Center Street.

A copy of the information previously released in this case from the Portland Police Bureau can be obtained by clicking here.

The grand jurors who reviewed this case are Multnomah County community members. Each grand juror was selected by Multnomah County's Chief Criminal Judge from the regularly scheduled jury pool. This is a process set by Oregon's Constitution.

Like in the past, the grand jury proceedings in this case were recorded, in accordance to ORS 132.260.

Pursuant to ORS.132.270, the Multnomah County District Attorney's Office will file a motion and request that the court authorize the release of a grand jury transcript for public review.

It shall be up to the Multnomah County Circuit Court Presiding Judge to determine if the motion to release the transcript will be granted.

The Multnomah County District Attorney's Office cannot comment any further on this case at this time.
