Jay Noble changes plea, convicted of three counts of robbery in the first degree

Today, Multnomah County District Attorney Rod Underhill announced that 33-year-old Jay Noble pleaded guilty to three counts of robbery in the first for numerous armed robberies he committed in Multnomah County.

According to the plea petition filed in Multnomah County Circuit Court, Noble will receive a 200 month prison sentence.

During this investigation, law enforcement determined that Noble was the person responsible for committing several different armed robberies between December 20, 2017 and January 17, 2018 in both Multnomah County and Clackamas County.

By pleading guilty, Noble admits that he unlawfully and knowingly committed armed robberies on December 20, 2017, December 29, 2017 and January 8, 2018.

“The robbery incidents followed an identical pattern in terms of how they were committed,” said Multnomah County Deputy District Attorney Parakram Singh, who prosecuted this case.

When Noble was arrested, law enforcement located a .44 caliber Ruger Blackhawk revolver, according to previously filed court documents.

In nearly all of the robberies, Noble wore a face mask and used the revolver to demand money from his victims, according to an arrest warrant affidavit.

This was joint investigation conducted by the Portland Police Bureau, Milwaukie Police Department and the Clackamas County Sheriff's Office.

The victims in this case continue to receive help from the Multnomah County District Attorney's Victim Assistance Program.

Sentencing in this matter is tentatively scheduled for September 6, 2019 at 1:30 p.m.

The Multnomah County District Attorney's Office has no additional comment pending sentencing.
