Rafael Gustavo Alcon-Ayala charged with three separate rapes dating back to 2016

Today, Multnomah County District Attorney Rod Underhill announced the filing of a six-count indictment against 30-year-old Rafael Gustavo Alcon-Ayala for allegedly committing three separate rapes between 2016 and 2019.

At this time, law enforcement, including the Multnomah County District Attorney's Office, is requesting assistance from the public in determining whether there are additional victims.

Alcon-Ayala is charged with five counts of rape in the first degree and one count of strangulation.

According to the indictment, Alcon-Ayala did unlawfully and knowingly engage in sexual intercourse on three separate occasions when the victims were incapable of consent either by reason of physical helplessness or mental incapacitation. Furthermore, Alcon-Ayala is accused of unlawfully and knowingly impeding the normal breathing and blood circulation of one of the victims.

The incidents are alleged to have occurred on July 28, 2016, December 2, 2017 and July 2, 2019 in Multnomah County.

All of the victims identified in the indictment are requesting privacy. The Multnomah County District Attorney's Office is requesting that media refrain from attempting to or actually contacting them.

This case is being investigated jointly by the Portland Police Bureau's Sex Crime Unit and the Gresham Police Department.

Like in all criminal and civil matters, electronic copies of court documents, which are not subject to a protective order, are available to the public through the Oregon eCourt Information (OECI) system.

No additional information can be released by the Multnomah County District Attorney's Office at this time pursuant to the Oregon Rules of Professional Conduct.

A charging document is only an accusation of a crime. Alcon-Ayala is innocent unless and until proven guilty.

Anyone with information on Alcon-Ayala is asked to call Portland Police Detective Michael Greenlee at 503-823-0871 or via email by clicking here.
